

2026 Life Learner Retreat

Are you Blind, Visually Impaired, or a friend or companion of someone who is? This retreat will introduce you to mobility, daily living skills, braille, transportation, budget/finance, problem solving, games and leisure, communication skills and so much more. Each retreat will support 3 to 6 Life Learners and is offered 1 time per month and individuals needing housing will stay just 5 blocks away at the Sapphire motel. Meals, training, and housing will be provided during your stay. The goal of this program is to empower confident vision and allow you to build skills and work with others of similar needs.

Cost:

- $250 for Life Learners not needing housing
- $500 for Life Learners needing lodging

Program Mission and Vision:

To empower blind and visually impaired individuals, no matter where they live, by cultivating essential life skills, confidence, and community through immersive retreats that foster independence and bold living.

A world where every person with vision loss lives boldly, navigates freely, and thrives with strength, purpose, and connection. It is guided by experienced Life Learner Coaches and a supportive community. This program is open to anyone nationwide.
